Description

MEET YOUR BUSINESS NEEDS TODAY, WITH THE ADAPTABILITY TO MEET THE NEEDS OF TOMORROW

Give your workers the mobile computer that can continually evolve to meet your ever-changing business needs with the Workabout Pro 4. Its impressive modularity lets you buy the features you need now, and easily add practically any feature you can imagine, right in your own facility.

Start with Wi-Fi and add WWAN. Swap scan engines to support new types of barcodes. Add support for voice picking applications and just about any type of RFID tag. Many ready-to-use modules are available to meet the highly specialised needs of diverse vertical markets. And since the Workabout brand has been serving businesses for over 20 years, you can choose the well-proven Workabout Pro 4 with confidence.

- Boost productivity with superior application performance

  With triple the Flash, double the RAM and almost double the processing speed of the prior generation, you get extraordinary performance on all applications.

- IMPRESSIVE MODULARITY FOR AN EXTRAORDINARY LIFE CYCLE AND A LOW TCO

  The Workabout Pro is built using modular design principles, enabling you to choose the features you need today and upgrade almost all key features tomorrow by simply changing the modules. Add a new scan engine; a camera; LF, HF or UHF RFID as well as Wi-Fi, cellular and GPS, plus a wide variety of additional options available through our partners.

- The fastest wireless connections

  Whether your workers are using the Wi-Fi or cellular wireless network, with support for 802.11a/b/g/n and HSPA+, they can count on the fastest speeds possible.

WORKABOUT PRO 4 MOBILE COMPUTER

BOOST WORKFORCE EFFICIENCY, TASK ACCURACY AND CUSTOMER SERVICE

Mobile workers inside and outdoors all have one thing in common: in order to achieve maximum efficiency, they need on-the-go access to business information. Since business needs are always changing and mobile technologies are ever-evolving; choosing a mobile computer that can keep up is challenging. Introducing the Workabout Pro 4, the mobile computer with the flexibility you need to meet your requirements, today and tomorrow.
